

COMMITTEE ON TERMINOLOGY (CTERM)

Total membership: 19 (17 countries) Members: 16

Technology exchange and transfer are facilitated by the existence of a common terminology. CTERM is responsible for the continuous updating, upgrading and translation of the on-line Terminology database http://termino.piarc.org, available from the homepage of the Association's website www.piarc.org

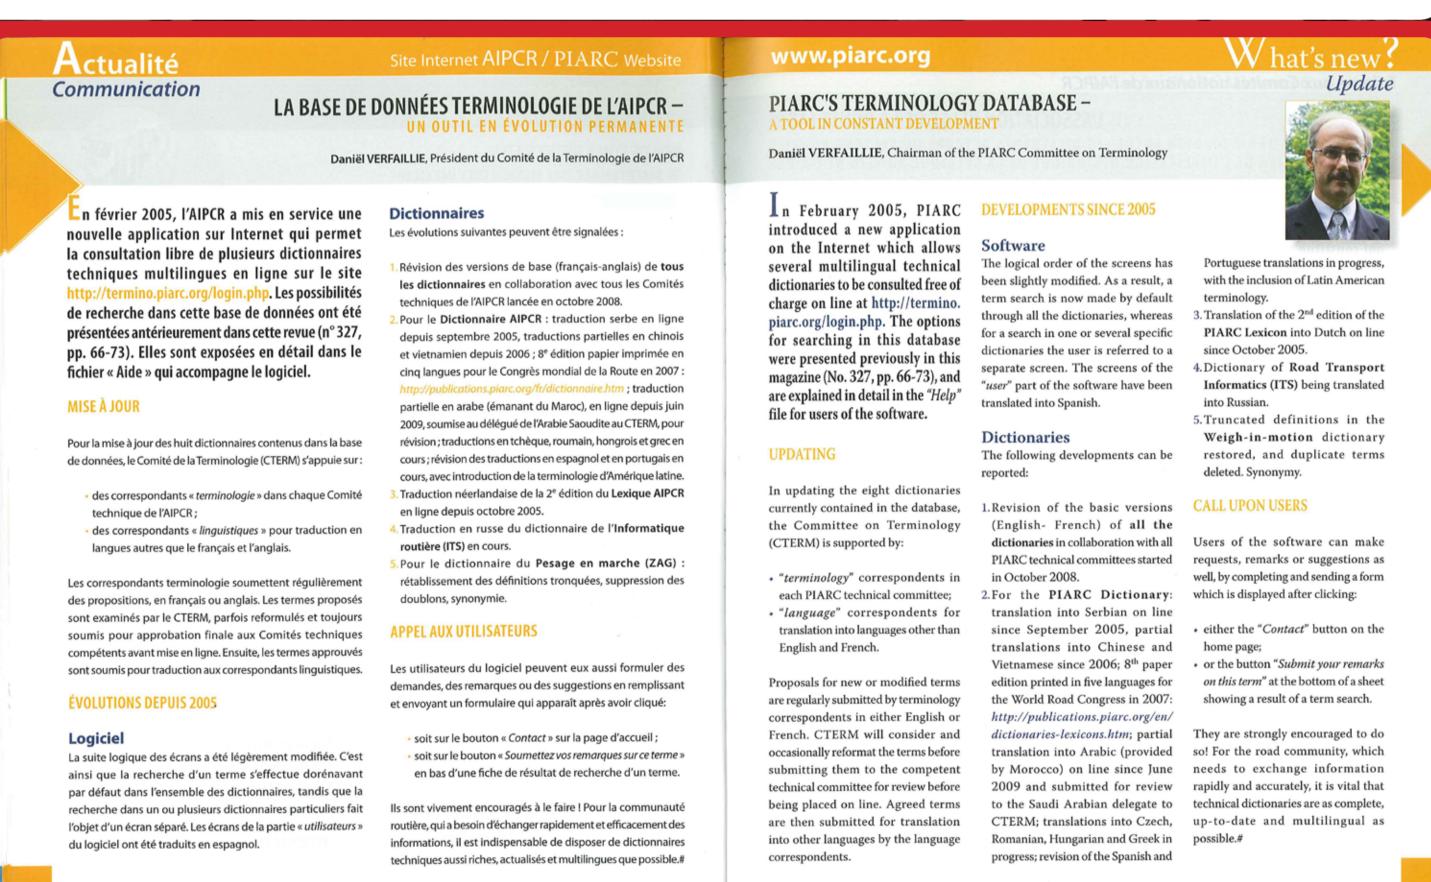

OUTPUTS

- Papers in Routes/Roads
- No. 346: "PIARC's Terminology database A tool in constant development". D Verfaillie
- No. 349: "PIARC Terminology Czech and Hungarian versions well under way, and further news". D Verfaillie

TERMINOLOGY

- Permanent updating of the dictionaries in the Terminology database. In 2008-2011:
 - basic (English-French) versions of the PIARC Dictionary and Lexicon
 - ■revision of synonymy and definitions in the specific dictionary on weigh-inmotion
 - ■involved in the preparation of new version of the specific dictionary on road transport informatics (ITS) by the Nordic Road Association (NVF)
 - comments on a new specific dictionary on road tunnel operation proposed by PIARC/TC C.4
- Translations into other languages than English and French. In 2008-2011:
 - Latin-American phraseology in the Spanish and Portuguese translations of the PIARC Dictionary
 - Austrian and Swiss phraseology in the German translation of the PIARC Dictionary

- correspondents from the technical committees and national
- Promote the further elaboration of the Terminology database in

- new Czech, Hungarian and Romanian translations of the PIARC Dictionary
- Persian translation of the PIARC Dictionary started
- Presentation of the database at national and international events:
 - PIARC Council meeting in Incheon City, Republic of Korea (September 2009)
- Czech national road congress (November 2010)
- road terminology training in Kigali, Rwanda (June-July 2011)
- AND AT THIS CONGRESS, in the Pavilion of the World Road Association